

Financial Services Guide

Date of issue 1 June 2021

About this guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) explains the financial services provided by Lonsdale and your adviser (who is authorised through Lonsdale). It is designed to help you make a fully informed decision about whether you want to use our services.

Please take the time to read this guide carefully. Sound financial advice is based on open communication. Understanding our services and our fees is the cornerstone of this communication. It's also important that you know who authorises your adviser, the nature of their associations and relationships and what to do if you have a complaint. If you have further questions, or if there is anything that isn't clear, please talk to your adviser or contact us.

This guide must be accompanied by an Adviser Profile which outlines your adviser's skills, qualifications and the services they are authorised to provide.

About us

Our advisers offer professional integrated financial advice strategies to achieve peace of mind and help you achieve your life goals.

Lonsdale is a boutique integrated financial planning group with origins tracing back over 30 years. Lonsdale works closely with accountants and financial planners to help build their aligned financial planning and strategic advice businesses.

Lonsdale has a network of qualified financial advisers across Australia. Your Lonsdale adviser is either a self-employed practice owner or employed by the practice as an adviser. All Lonsdale financial advisers have a legal obligation and an ethical duty to act with integrity and in the best interests of you, their clients.

Lonsdale is a wholly owned subsidiary of IOOF Holdings Limited (IOOF) which is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX: IFL).

Products and services we provide

Our network of advisers provide a range of financial services including investing, superannuation, retirement and insurance. Specific information about the services your adviser is authorised to provide and their qualifications are contained in the attached Adviser Profile. Lonsdale is not responsible for any accountancy or other services that you may receive from our financial advisers or their related entities.

Important documents you can expect to receive

When your adviser provides personal financial advice for the first time, you will generally be given a Statement of Advice (SoA). The SoA sets out your personal advice, the basis on which it is given, the cost of the advice, and information about any associations or relationships that could influence the advice.

If you require further advice at a later time, providing your circumstances have not changed significantly since your previous SoA, your adviser may be able to provide the further advice verbally or via a shorter Record of Advice (RoA). If you are given

Not independent

We are a wholly owned subsidiary of IOOF Holdings Limited (IOOF) and part of the IOOF group of companies (IOOF Group). The IOOF Group is an issuer of financial products, some of which are included in our Approved Product List. In addition, we may receive commission on life insurance products as explained in this FSG under the heading 'How we are paid'. For these reasons, we do not refer to ourselves or our advice as independent, impartial or unbiased.

verbal advice, your adviser will document the discussion and a copy of this record can be made available to you on request. If you are given further advice and your circumstances have changed significantly since your previous SoA, you will generally be given another SoA.

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product, you will generally be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features and costs in detail. In certain circumstances, there is no requirement to provide a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

If you ask your adviser to undertake a transaction without receiving advice from that adviser, you may be given a letter confirming your instructions and disclosing any costs payable by you in relation to that transaction.

Our Approved Products List

Only products and services that have been examined by Lonsec Research Pty Ltd (Lonsec) and IOOF's experienced research team are placed on our Approved Products List (APL). Products and services on the APL include those offered, managed or administered by our related companies, including Australian Executor Trustees Limited, IOOF Investment Management Limited, IOOF Investment Services Limited, IOOF Limited and Managed Portfolio Services Limited. Our related companies also include:

- OnePath Funds Management Limited, OnePath Custodians Pty Limited and Oasis Funds Management Limited which IOOF purchased from ANZ Banking Group Limited in 2020. As part of the acquisition, our APL includes certain ANZ banking products and insurance products issued by OnePath Life Limited where those products continue to be suitable for our clients' needs and providing they comply with our legal obligations. OnePath Life Limited is part of the Zurich Financial Services group and is not part of the IOOF group.
- MLC Investment Limited, JANA Investment Advisers Pty Ltd, NULIS Nominees (Australia) Limited, Navigator Australia Limited, Antares Capital Partners Ltd, Fairview Equity Partners Pty Ltd, Intermede Investment Partners Limited, MLC Asset Management Services Limited and Presima Inc which IOOF acquired as part of the purchase of MLC Wealth Limited from National Australia Bank Limited (NAB) in 2021. As part of the acquisition, our APL includes certain products issued by NAB or its related entities and insurance products issued by MLC Limited, provided those products are suitable for our clients' needs and providing they comply with our legal obligations. MLC Limited is part of the Nippon Life Insurance group and is not part of the IOOF group.

Our related companies will receive fees and benefits as disclosed in the relevant disclosure document if you purchase the product or use the service.

Your adviser will first source from the APL before providing any recommendations. This means any product or service your adviser recommends has been thoroughly researched. They will only recommend a product or service after considering its appropriateness in relation to your individual objectives, financial situation, needs and best interests. Where your strategy requires products and services other than those on the APL to act in your best interests, the IOOF research team will be consulted and we will seek to find an alternative solution.

Important relationships and other benefits

In addition to the related companies listed above (under the heading 'Our Approved Products List') you should also be aware of the following relationships and benefits that we may receive. Any payments noted below are not an additional cost to you and will only be made to the extent permitted by law. Any other arrangements you need to be aware of will be set out in the Adviser Profile attached to this document. Arrangements that are relevant to the advice being provided to you will also be disclosed in your written advice.

Product and service provider benefits

Lonsdale may receive sponsorship payments from product and service providers to fund technical and professional development training for our advisers. Our practice owners or advisers may also apply for and may qualify to receive commercial terms on a range of banking products and services such as interest rates and limited recourse terms.

Distribution fees

Related companies of Lonsdale may receive fees for acting as the distributor of financial products which your adviser may recommend. Any fee is paid by the product issuer or administrator of the product out of its own funds. Neither your adviser nor Lonsdale receive any of these fees.

Advisory fees

Product providers may pay advisory fees to Lonsdale or an investment management entity associated with Lonsdale. This fee is for the provision of portfolio management advisory services where Lonsdale model portfolios are utilised via managed accounts or separately managed accounts. In the event of this occurring, the fee is calculated as a percentage, likely to be up to 0.15% of the managed account or separately managed account portfolio balance. Your adviser will not receive any of this fee.

Referral partners

Your adviser may have referral relationships with third parties. These third parties may include accountants, mortgage brokers, general insurance brokers, solicitors, real estate agents and other third parties who specialise in a specific field.

If you are referred to your adviser by one of these third parties, that third party may receive a referral fee, commission or non-monetary benefit. These referral fees can vary and may be up to 40% of revenue received by your adviser's practice or an equivalent or lesser value non-monetary benefit. Advisers can change their referral relationships over time and, as such, the referral fee ranges may also vary over time. Where you are referred to a third party (including to other financial advisers) by your adviser, your adviser does not receive any payment for that referral. We also do not approve or endorse their advice. You must assess the merits of their advice in the light of your own circumstances and objectives.

Associated businesses

Your adviser may have associations with other related businesses, such as an accountancy firm.

Other payments

We keep a full register of any benefits received by advisers of between $100 to $300. By law, your adviser is not permitted to receive benefits in excess of $300 per year from a product issuer. In addition, Lonsdale keeps a register of any other non-monetary benefits your adviser may receive in relation to education, training, technology support or software that is relevant to the provision of financial advice. If you would like a copy of either register, please ask your adviser and one will be made available to you.

How we are paid

We receive remuneration from:

- Advice and service fees paid by you (fee for service)
- Commissions from insurance providers
- Other payments and benefits as outlined above under the heading 'Important relationships and other benefits'

As the licensee, Lonsdale collects all fees and commissions which are paid on to your adviser's practice. The Adviser Profile explains how your adviser is paid. Lonsdale receives a licensee fee from your adviser's practice of up to $165,000 per annum, which is in part based on remuneration paid to your adviser's practice.

Advice and service fees paid by you

Before providing personal advice, your adviser will agree the fees and payment options with you. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare your personal financial advice. Fees and commissions that are relevant to the advice being provided will also be disclosed in the written advice provided to you.

The types of fees you may be asked to pay can include:

- Statement of Advice (SoA) fee – a fee to gather information, analyse your situation and prepare your SoA.
- Implementation fee – a fee to implement the recommendations contained in your SoA.
- Review service fee – a fee for the provision of review services if you enter into a service agreement with your adviser.

Your adviser may also charge other fees for the ad hoc provision of advice or services, including if you instruct your adviser to complete a transaction on your behalf such as buying or selling specific financial products.

Commissions from insurance providers

Insurance providers may pay us commissions if your adviser recommends insurance products to you. Commissions are based on a percentage of your insurance premium. On all commission arrangements where the commission in the first year is greater than that payable in later years, the maximum upfront (year 1) commission is 66% and the maximum ongoing (years 2+) commission is 22% (inclusive of GST). Where upfront and ongoing commissions are the same, there is no legislated maximum however product providers generally pay up to 33%.

For insurance products purchased prior to 1 January 2018, we may continue to be paid commissions in the same manner as what would have previously been advised to you at the time of obtaining the product(s).

If you have a complaint

If you have a complaint about financial services provided to you, your complaint can be directed to your adviser in the first instance. You can also raise your complaint at any time by contacting us at:

Professional indemnity insurance

Lonsdale is covered by professional indemnity insurance satisfying the requirements under the Corporations Act for compensation arrangements. Our insurance arrangements cover claims made against us as the licensee and both our current and former authorised representatives.

Our privacy policy

Australian Privacy Principles apply to the collection of personal or sensitive information. This means that information provided by you in the course of receiving financial planning services must only be used:

- to provide you with information, products or services that you might reasonably expect or request
- to fully understand or anticipate your needs during our relationship
- to manage rights and obligations under any laws applying to the services provided, or
- to conduct research, or planning and marketing, which includes direct marketing, although you do have the right to specifically instruct that your details aren't used for these purposes.

The type of information which will usually be requested will include details about your financial, taxation, health, employment and estate planning matters. This may include details relating to your partner or family members.

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Finance Act 2006 to verify your identity and the source of any funds.

This means that we will ask you to present identification documents such as passports and driver's licence and we will retain copies of this information.

You are entitled to request access to your file for the purpose of reviewing and correcting the information held. However, you cannot access information where it would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of another person or if the information is relevant to legal obligations or legal proceedings.

In providing services to you, from time-to-time we will disclose information about you to our Authorised Representatives and other professionals, including insurance providers, superannuation trustees, product issuers as well as our service providers. It is generally unlikely that we will disclose your personal information to overseas recipients.

However, any overseas disclosure does not affect our commitment to safeguarding your personal information and we will take reasonable steps to ensure any overseas recipient of your personal information complies with Australian privacy law. Should your adviser utilise an overseas service provider, these arrangements will be detailed in their Planner Profile.

If your financial planner leaves our Lonsdale licence and starts to provide financial services under another licensee, your information may be transferred to the new licensee. You will be advised of any such transfer before it takes place.

You are entitled to obtain access to the information we hold about you by contacting the Privacy Officer on 1300 566 732 or by writing to:

Privacy Officer, Lonsdale Financial Group Ltd

How will you pay for the financial services?

At the initial meeting, your financial planner will explain the services that are available to you, what you can expect and the payment options that are available.

Before you become a client of MC2 Wealth, remuneration and payment will be agreed and the details of any fees and commissions payable, and any other relevant remuneration and benefits, will be disclosed to you in the Statement of Advice (SoA). For any financial product that is recommended, the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for that product will outline the fees payable to the product provider. Any of the payments listed below will be made as agreed with you.

A summary of the way MC2 Wealth is paid is outlined below and all fees quoted are inclusive of GST.

Financial planning advice fee

The fee for the initial advice is generally dependent on the nature and complexity of the advice, and the time required. The fee will be discussed and agreed with you and outlined in our Terms of Engagement letter for you to sign. As a guide the initial fee (i.e. SoA) is generally between $2,200 and $5,500. As a client you pay this fee directly via a tax invoice.

If after you have been issued with a SoA, you choose not to proceed, the initial advice fee is payable as estimated in our Terms of Engagement letter.

Financial planner service fee – ongoing

Our ongoing fee is generally dependent on the nature and complexity of the ongoing advice, the size of the portfolio, and an estimate of the ongoing time required. The fee will be discussed and agreed with you and outlined in our Terms of Engagement letter for you to sign.

As a guide the ongoing fee is generally between $4,400 and $11,000 per annum. In some circumstances, we can also charge an hourly fee. My current hourly fee is $330 per hour.

Please note that the amount charged will be set out in your SoA.

Financial planning service fee once-off

The financial planning service fee once-off is not applicable.

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2018

When risk insurance products are recommended, the insurance provider may pay your adviser an initial commission based on the value of your premium, which under an upfront structure will be capped at 88 per cent, reducing to 77 per cent from 1 January 2019, before settling at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure will be capped at 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Overseas Disclosures

In order to facilitate the provision of financial services, para-planning and other administrative services for you, your financial adviser utilises a service provider located in the Philippines.

Accordingly, your personal information will likely be accessed from this overseas location. Any overseas disclosure of your personal information to enable these services to be provided does not affect our commitment to safeguarding your privacy, and we will take reasonable steps to ensure that any overseas recipient complies with Australian privacy law.
